KURRINDA ON THE TRACK

LYRICAL BEAUTY

2/3 ROYAL RANDWICK 1000M 8th/13

Lyrical Beauty resumed first up in the TAB Highway for trainer Matt Dale. With no Highways over the Sydney Carnival for the next while we thought we would take a throw at the stumps and have a crack despite the 1000m being less than ideal for Lyrical. "Aussie Tom" Tom Marquand was booked to ride, one of the leading jockeys in the world. We anticipated plenty of speed so barrier 10, although not ideal, we still felt we could get some cover as they were seeming to come off the rail in the earlier races. Lyrical jumped fair, she didn't quite manage to get the cover we were hoping for, racing wide throughout. Despite on paper there being a lot of speed, it turned out to be a crawl going very slow before turning into a sprint in the home straight which just caught Lyrical for pace before tiring late. She was brave in defeat, she will come on a lot for the run in what was a very strong Highway and no doubt will be very competitive out to 1200m next start.

SATIN STILETTO

12/3 GOULBURN TRIAL 1000M 4th/9

Satin Stiletto stepped out at her home track in what was a very competitive trial against the older horses with some much bigger and seasoned opposition. Her regular rider at the Matt Dale stable, Jockey Richard Bensley, was in the saddle. Satin pinged the gates with Bensley opting to take her back; she travelled beautifully throughout the trial in the middle of the pack, not to be intimidated by the much bigger, more furnished older horses around her. Satin loomed up the middle of the pack alongside her stablemate, the $500k earner and stakes placed Mystery Shot, to finish a close 4th under a tight hold, showing she's ready to head to the races and has come back in fantastic order.

HALF CROWN
19/3 DEAGON TRIAL 1200M 2ND/4

Half Crown had a nice tick over trial at Deagon under Jockey Michael Rodd after a great 1st up run he suffered a minor setback that saw him miss some work but judging by his trial performance he is back on track and ready to head to the races. A very positive sign from him as he has always been the type of horse that tends to not trial well but always shows up on race day with a very honest performance. He was due to head back to midweek metro level at Doomben only for the races to be washed out and will now head to Ipswich April 1st as we look to get him back to the races.

PUZZLE DRAGON
19/3 GOSFORD TRIAL 1000M 4TH/8

Puzzle Dragon stepped out at the trials for only the 2nd time in his career when bumping into none other than Storm Boy at the trials last prep. Jumping well from the outside barrier, Jockey Ash Morgan elected to take him back in order to further his education. Still showing greenness throughout and off a tough run wide with no cover, turning for home the widest of all, he came home nicely, hitting the line well. A nice step forward for a horse that has shown us good ability in these early parts of his career and he will benefit a lot from the experience.

MALABOOM 23/3 EAGLE FARM 1000m 2ND/8

Malaboom returned to the races after a minor setback. She was given a nice trial at Goulburn earlier in the month where she ran 2nd under a hold to future Group 1 The Galaxy placegetter Front Page, so we were confident we had her right heading north to take advantage of the valuable QTIS bonus prize money on offer. Leading QLD Jockey James Orman was booked and with a good barrier, we were confident despite the 8 weeks between runs. We were hoping to take a sit on her from the barrier and get some cover but her natural gate speed and pace meant nothing could go with her in the initial part of the race. So, Orman elected to let her naturally find the lead and dictate the race. Turning into the home straight, she gave a good kick to go 3 lengths clear. She was very brave as she was a sitting duck to the closers, but she fought all the way to the line to go down in a photo finish. A stride before and after the line, she was in front - an agonising defeat, but great to see her run so tractable. In the aftermath of the race, Orman reported that Malaboom lost a shoe at the 350m mark right when the pressure was coming on, so it was a huge run considering. It was great to see her back to her best for all of her ownership group.

PRIVATE HARRY
27/3 NEWCASTLE TRIAL 800m IST/8

Private Harry stepped out at the trials under jockey Ash Morgan looking to build on his last prep where he showed plenty of ability. A strong field lined up with last start metro winners, stakes placed and rock hard fit opposition he jumped from an inside barrier showing fair gate speed as the Gai Waterhouse horse jumped best. Harry quickly found the front under a hold with all the runners electing to come wide for the better ground Ash Morgan cut the corner on Private Harry quickly putting 3 lengths on them eased toward the finish to win by a comfortable 2 lengths despite still showing signs of greenness, it was another impressive display with the clock backing it up running quicker time than any other trial that day over the 800m including the open trials. Exciting times ahead for all involved in him.

LYRICAL BEAUTY
28/3 WAGGA 1200m 3RD/14

Lyrical Beauty returned to the races stepping up to the 1200m with Jockey Danny Beasley in the saddle. She didn't do herself any favours when missing the start, she then rushed through the pack having to work early, once she got to one off the leader she finally relaxed in the run. On turning into the straight Danny held her together trying to conserve her after just having to work that bit more than we would have liked early on. Lyrical kicked a couple of lengths clear to only tire late, just the early work and the big weight of 61kg taking its toll late on. Still a great run from her and she will be very hard to beat next start, a consistent filly for her ownership group.

Kurrinda BLOODSTOCK

SATIN STILETTO 28/3 WAGGA 1000m IST/10

Satin Stiletto returned to the races to take on the older horses after a successful 1st prep. We looked to get that all-important 2yo maiden win on the board to further enhance her residual value. She was partnered by her regular track work rider, Richard Bensley. She showed a very professional attitude; with one go off in the barriers, she stood there very quietly. She showed great gate speed, jumping well and finding the rail, crossing the inside runner. Getting a great spot in behind the leader, she travelled sweetly. On turning into the straight, the leader kicked a couple of lengths clear, still showing some inexperience, not knowing how to fully let down quite yet and on shifty ground conditions. She showed great toughness as the leader, the much bigger, older horse, lay out on top of her. She was not fazed, hitting the front and was very soft to the line for a good win. Perfectly placed by the Matt Dale team and beautifully ridden by Richard Bensley, she will take a lot of benefit from the experience and will have bigger targets on the horizon. Congratulations to everyone involved in her.

Kurrinda BLOODSTOCK

GET TO KNOW

The owner for the month of March is Rhys Columbus. We recently had the pleasure of meeting Rhys at the Adelaide sales. We have loved having Rhys with us as an owner and look forward to some exciting times at the races, judging by the fancy dress party efforts, Rhys and his mate pictured dressed as Lyrical Beauty and Danny Beasley.

QUESTION TIME

Q- How did you get the initial interest in horse racing?

A- Dad owned racehorses growing up so always had a bit of a background interest. I follow a number of sports pretty seriously, but nothing gave me the opportunity to get as involved as horse racing, so it was the perfect fit for me!

Q- What has been your personal favourite racing moment as an owner?

A- Lyrical Beauty breaking her maiden will be tough to beat. Was in Bali with my mates streaming the race, and I had the Bintang cracked when she went right past Sheetice at the 200!

Q- Best race you have ever seen?

A- Been so many beltors, but in recent memory the 2023 Cox Plate is right up there. AB / Mr B / Romantic Warrior battling it out, two of the best horses we have in Australia and a highly rated foreign raider. Brilliant viewing!

Q- If you could own any horse of any era who? And why?

A- Will take the easy way out here and say Storm Boy, for obvious reasons! $$$

Q- One meeting or racecourse you would love to attend?

A- Royal Ascot in the UK is probably top of my racing bucket list at the moment.

Q- Why would you recommend people to get involved in racehorse ownership in Australia?

A- In my opinion, there isn't much out there that can provide the same excitement, community, social experience and overall rewards of racehorse ownership. Since getting involved, I've always had a story for mates or something for them to keep an eye on, whilst undergoing my own educational journey. I love it, and I'll be an owner for life.

Q- If you could invite 3 people to dinner, dead or alive, who would you choose?

A- Tough one! Let's go with Devin Booker, Warren Buffett and Christopher Nolan.

Q- How would you personally go about getting more people involved in racing and why should they?

A- Keep spreading the word and letting others join in the journey. I have a few mates who love following Lyrical Beauty's career and I can tell they are getting closer to pulling the trigger themselves. When they're ready, I'll be sending them directly to George!

Q- Why would you recommend someone to become an owner with Kurrinda Bloodstock based on your experience so far?

A- I absolutely love the community, consistency, transparency and communication. You hear plenty of horror stories from other owners with different syndicates, where owners are left in the dark on the status and prospects of their horse. The weekly updates from Kurrinda ensure I am always kept informed, plus the team of Sean, Gen and George are never far away if I have any questions. Couldn't be more positive personally!

Quickfire round

Q- Black caviar or Winx?

A- Winx

Q- Melbourne Cup or Everest?

A- Everest

Q- Beer or wine?

A- YES!

Q- Watching the races at home, the pub, or attending the races?

A- Home.
