Crown Guinea Owners rewarded

It was absolutely fantastic to see Crown Guinea finally break through for her third victory in her career, she is very frustrating at times as she has a habit of jumping slowly which puts her in a spot that is always hard to overcome in running but on this occasion she was good enough to overcome it. She has now been sent to the paddock for a well deserved break.

Stern Reminder

5/4 Nowra 1200m Maiden - 1st

Stern Reminder broke through at this third start in fantastic fashion, the blinkers were added and it has improved the horse considerably.

Crown Guinea

5/4 Sunshine Coast 1200m BM 58 - 4th

Crown Guinea was 5th up this prep and also on a one week back up, she is so tough and so honest. Her only downfall is she is always that tad tarty away every time which is constantly costing her.

Galactic Star

8/4 Eagle Farm 1000m BM 68 - 5th

Galactic Star was in great order going to the races today, he looked very plain to the eye but he unfortunately pulled up lame the following day and on the day pulled up with cardiac arrhythmia and heat stress. He will now come home for a good break.

Hidden Motive

11/4 Morphetville 1100m G3 Irwin Stakes - 6th

Hidden Motive was third up today after an unfavourable effort last start, he found a great spot and was given every chance today with a great ride. he was just very plain again today and didnt really handle that way of going.

Inspiritu

12/4 Gundagai 1180m Maiden - 6th

Inspiritu had her first career start today and she went well not beaten far, we knew she would need further in time but it was a good start to her career and look forward to seeing her over 13/1400 next start.

Gorgeous

14/4 Hawkesbury 1000m Class 1 - 2nd

Gorgeous was first up today after only 1 trial, she was slow out, travelled ungenerously throughout and then went very wayward upon turning for home and was 2L off the second last horse. From there she still managed to run 2nd which is just some effort but she needs to improve her manners quickly.

Queens Rhapsody

18/4 Kembla Grange 1000m Class 1 - 2nd

Queens Rhapsody had her first start in nearly a year today, a bit short of her ideal distance, carrying 59kg and as mentioned first up in a long time to only to be beaten .8L and running time I couldn't be happier with her today.

Zou Force

19/4 Wagga 1200m Maiden - 1st

Zou Force had his second career start today and the improvement that he took out of his first start to his second start was great. Fantastic ride by Nick and still has plenty of natural improvement to come in time.

Crown Guinea

26/4 Gatton 1100m BM58 - 1st

Crown guinea has had a long prep this time in, approx 6 months but it just shows how tough she is. Getting the job done today she will now head home to us for a good break.

Inspiritu

30/4 Wagga 1400m Maiden - 2nd

Inspiritu was second up today and she went outstanding, just natural improvement each run thus far which is all we can ask for.

Stern Reminder

30/4 Wagga 1200m Class 1 - 9th

Stern Reminder presented well today, he jumped well travelled great up until the 425m mark and then was starting to feel the firm ground. At the 200m he copped a big check and was lucky to stay on his feet, put a pen through today and move forward.

Super Norwest

30/4 Wagga 1200m Town Plate - 10th

Super Norwest jumped terrific from a bad gate and just had to do it the tough way three deep, she also does prefer the track to have a bit more give in the track but overall he run was a pass mark.

Zou Force

30/4 Wagga 1400m Class 2 - 2nd

Zou Force was third up this prep jumped from the widest gate and we got caught three deep no cover the entire over 1400m for the first time. He went huge today, couldn't have been prouder.

Funshow

30/4 Wyong 1300m Maiden - 3rd

Funshow was first up today this prep, jumped well, travelled a little keen but all the same he was just fair. In saying this it is always hard dragging the field up with a tear away leader.
